Show Management reserves the right to refuse spaces and will act as the sole judge of applicability and fitness of exhibits.
  4. Participating Exhibitors have the exclusive rights to promote or sell goods or services at the show. Any other parties will NOT be allowed to make any sale solicitations without the express written permission of Show Management. Distribution of samples, souvenirs and promotional material and soliciting of business must be confined to the Exhibitor's own space. Show Management reserves the right to stop or remove the source of such disturbance. If any doubt exists that the booth does not meet these conditions the Exhibitor must provide details and have their exhibit approved in advance of the show and in writing by Show Management.
  7. Show Specials Policy: In order to establish and maintain a true buying show, Exhibitors are required to offer a “show only” special as outlined on the reverse of this contract. Show Management must insist that participating Exhibitors who are offering show specials have them for only the two days of the show. These rules will be closely monitored by the LBMAO and Show Management.
  8. The Exhibitor agrees to obtain and maintain at their own expense during the move-in, show and move-out, a policy of insurance that will protect Show Management, the Lumber and Building Materials Association of Ontario (LBMAO) and insure the Exhibitor against all claims, demands, actions, or proceedings for sums of money, damages to or loss of property arising from or in any way connected with the Exhibitor's participation in the show. This also includes contracts signed after the cancellation deadline. In the event the Exhibitor fails to make payment as aforesaid or fails to comply in any respect with the terms of the contract, Show Management reserves the right to cancel this contract without notice and all rights of the Exhibitor hereunder shall cease and terminate.
